

TOEFL- PREPARATORY COURSES

The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is a standardized test, in which the English language skills of non-native speakers are tested. The test was developed for the university and college admission and simulated typical language situations from a degree course. The test is an admission requirement for almost all universities in the English-speaking world, especially in the USA. A certificate has a validity of up to two years after the date of the test. The TOEFL is carried out worldwide by the Educational Testing Service (ETS).

TEST STRUCTURE TOEFL

The entire test lasts for four to five hours with check-in, instruction, loading times and a 10-minute break included.

SECTION	TIME	TASK
READING	60 - 100 Minutes	3 - 5 texts with 12-14 questions each
LISTENING	60 - 90 Minutes	4 - 6 speeches with 6 questions each 2 - 3 dialogues with 5 questions each
BREAK	10 Minutes
